DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

This definitive course record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] course. The information provided is accurate for apprentices entering level 4 in the 2024-25 academic year⁵.

Course Summary

The BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] is designed to prepare apprentices for the constantly changing and challenging environment of social work and social care practice. Underpinned by a strong commitment to social justice, the programme combines a clear academic focus on the theoretical underpinnings of social work with careful attention to practice skills, knowledge, values and personal and professional development. The BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] is based on a model in which apprentices are employed full-time by their employers and spend part of their working week undertaking social work studies. The requirements of the Institute for Apprenticeships (IfA) is that apprentices on the BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] programme spend up to 20% or 6 hours of their working time in educational activities. The pattern of working for apprentices includes attending learning and teaching activities and modules, one day a week across the year in Levels 4, 5 and 6. Programme delivery involves non-integrated and integrated aspects with undergraduate students, with similar and bespoke assessments that diversify dependent upon the learner pathway. The apprenticeship model is employer funded and employers identify potential candidates to attend the BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] programme, with support and collaboration from UoS.

Course Aims

The following statements define what apprentices graduating from the BA (Hons) Social Work [degree apprenticeship] course will have been judged to have demonstrated in order to achieve the award.

- At the point of completion of the course, produce social work graduates who meet all six SWE (2019) Professional Standards, nine domains of the Professional Capabilities Framework (BASW 2018) at qualifying level, and who are therefore eligible to apply for professional registration as social workers with SWE.
- To deliver a coherent curriculum that is relevant to contemporary social work practice, which is evidence-informed including by up-to-date research, theory, knowledge, social work values and practice developments.
- To utilise diverse teaching, learning and assessment methods which support the development of competent, thoughtful and reflective practitioners, committed to personal and professional development with a sound ethical base, in line with: the Subject Benchmark Statement for Social Work (QAA, 2019); the Professional Standards (SWE, 2019), the Professional Capabilities Framework (BASW, 2018), the Institute for Apprentices Standards (2023), the curriculum guides (TCSW/Higher Education Academy, 2012), and the Education and Training Standards (SWE, 2021).
- To work closely with key partners (external examiners, employers, social work managers and practitioners, people who use social work services, apprentices and other professionals) to ensure that the course is informed by their views and responsive to their knowledge and experiences in order to ensure the relevance of
